

CRW Engineering Group, LLC (CRW) has an immediate opening for a Mechanical Engineer in our Anchorage office. The position will involve the development of plans, specifications, and estimates for public works and commercial facilities in communities throughout the State of Alaska. Projects include new and upgrading vertical construction, schools, and bulk fuel facilities, water and sewer systems. The successful candidate will have mechanical engineering experience on HVAC, heat recovery, fuel system design and plumbing systems.

Requirements:

- Bachelor's Degree in Mechanical Engineering
- Licensed Mechanical Engineer in the state of Alaska is a requirement
 - Minimum of four (4) years of relevant experience
 - Proficient with AutoCAD, Civil 3D
 - Proficient with REVIT Mechanical
 - Excellent communication skills
 - Working Knowledge of national codes and standards
- Willing to travel to remote Alaskan communities for short periods

CRW Engineering Group, LLC is a full-service land surveying and engineering firm with offices in Anchorage and Palmer that provides planning, design, and construction support services for clients and communities throughout Alaska. As a member of our team, you will work in a high-energy, innovative firm dedicated to excellence and helping you advance your career goals. We are a well-established firm with more than 35 years that is consistently ranked in the nation among the Best Firms to Work For (CE News Multidiscipline). We offer an excellent compensation package and work environment.

Apply online at www.crweng.com/contact/careers/